Ride On is dedicated to enhancing the quality of life of children and adults with disabilities through a unique combination of equine related therapy, recreation and fun. Therapeutic riding is a unique combination of therapy, recreation, sport, and education. Specially trained instructors use their knowledge of disabilities to teach horsemanship skills to riders with varying ability levels. A typical lesson involves safety on and around horses, warm up exercises, riding skills including equitation and obstacle. All riders wear an ASTM-SEI approved helmet and use standard English or western tack specially adapted to their needs. Ride On offers Hippotherapy, which emphasizes therapy and always involves a licensed physical, speech or occupational therapist. This unique therapy requires a doctor's prescription and helps to improve the balance, postural control, sensory integration, mobility, communication, strength and behavior for patients of all ages and disabilities. They offer equine assisted psychotherapy, which involves a licensed mental health professional. They also offer Therapeutic Riding, which emphasizes recreation, riding skills and fun on horseback. There are 10 certified instructors, 6 therapists, and dozens of volunteers using over 20 horses carefully trained and well suited to the task of teaching the disabled. Ride On is a Premier Accredited Riding Center of the North American Riding for the Handicapped Association (NARHA). They are a 501 (c) (3) Non-Profit Corporation serving the mentally and physically disabled.

The Water Whisperer is a place where babies 6 months and up to adults learn to swim. The Water Whisperer specializes in teaching individuals to swim by using entertaining, developmental methods that break down the basic elements of swimming in a simplistic and child-friendly manner. The Water Whisperer's goal is to not only get children to love the water, but to also have students swimming in a short time while they learn water safety skills; in fact, the Water Whisperer has a 98% success rate in getting children ages 3 and up swimming within 10 lessons. The Water Whisperer uses a warm, heated, covered, saline pool. She is CPR-certified with a Master's Degree in Education, and a Multiple Subject Teaching Credential from UCLA. She is a member of The United States Swim School Association, where she participates in continuing swimming education courses to keep up with current safety and teaching techniques. Lifeguards for parties are also available.

AquaSafe Swimming provides access to their pools during the session and are also available to do home visits at the client's pool. They provide private and semi-private lessons with certified, experienced instructors. They also provide lifeguards for swim parties. Their goal is to teach water safety as they meet the needs of beginning through advanced swimmers. They use age-appropriate, gentle, and fun methods! They have experience working with children with special needs. Their program runs year-round. Although the pools are outside they are heated; however, at the discretion of the parent, sessions may be cancelled due to inclement weather. Their program is set up so that each session runs for a total of 10 lessons with intensive everyday lessons, or 2 to 3 lessons a week. They have found through experience that the more intensive the session the more effective the result. The standard lesson is half an hour for beginners, 45 minutes for intermediate and up to 1 hour for more advanced or semi-private lessons (2 or more children).
